Brief details:

A minor fire mock drill was conducted at the CWS site of ONGC Assam, led by Mr. Prasanta Dutta, Installation Safety Officer of CORE-EHS Solutions Pvt. Ltd. The drill aimed to assess and enhance the preparedness of the team in handling fire-related emergencies, ensuring effective response and coordination in such situations. Mr. Dutta, with his expertise, guided the participants through various simulated fire scenarios, emphasizing safety protocols, emergency evacuation procedures, and fire-fighting techniques. The drill contributed to reinforcing the safety culture at the site and ensuring the team's readiness to tackle potential fire hazards efficiently.
